We will not begin your website until we have all content, images and logos supplied for it. The website Questionnaire will help with this, so please fill out as much information as possible. It is also helpful to send brochures, other advertisements or catalogues with your submission.

*We take no responsibility for loss of sales by any editing done by the customer. We offer a service of editing websites at $100 per hour. Payment conditions are cheque, cash, direct debit or credit card. All payments for website packages will be required up front as confirmation of commencement. The Business deal and Premium Offer are exempt from this and will require 50% up front as confirmation and 50% upon completion (30 days).
